8 - 11 FEBRUARY 2018

Chester Antiques Fair of Decorative Delights!

Stylish antiques, superb paintings and all kinds of rare and unusual antique, art deco & contemporary treasures go on sale at The Chester Antiques Fair in the Grandstand, Chester Racecourse, 8 - 11 February.

From lush Edwardian sofas to exquisite Georgian furniture, silver & china for the dining room to smart 20th century sculptures and paintings, Chester Antiques Fair offers plenty of choice for the seasoned collector and first-time visitor. The fair covers every kind of object for the home from the past 300 years.

In addition, there is a range of pieces ideal for Valentines Day gifts - including glittering gem-set jewellery, watches, vintage cocktail and evening dresses, mid-20th century designer costume jewellery & accessories.

Forty specialist dealers take part, with stylish displays over the three floors of the County Grandstand, several transforming the top floor boxes into room sets. Many are members of the LAPADA and BADA, the leading trade associations. With everything for sale, prices run from £20 up to a few at £25,000. All are labelled with the price, date and description - all of which are carefully checked by the Vetting Committees for quality and authenticity.

Penman Fairs have organised the fair since 1989, a major fixture in the social calendar in the NorthWest. Visitors come from across the region and far beyond, many enjoying the splendid attractions of Chester.
